THE MYSORE CO-OPERATIVE INSTITUTE, BANGALORE CITY.

Report on the working of the Co-operative Training Class for 1938:-

The Institute conducted Training Classes in Bangalore for the benefit of office-bearers and members of co-operative institutions and the general public on the same lines as in previous years. The course lasted for two months and twelve days commencing from 6th January 1938. Classes were held in the Apex Bank Buildings for four hours daily (two hours in the morning and two hours in the evening) excepting Sundays and other general holidays.

Applications were received from 101 candidates including one lady candidate. The selection was made by a Sub-committee appointed by the Working Committee of the Institute for the purpose and 56 applicants were selected. S.S.L.C.qualification was taken to be the minimum requirement for admission and that was relaxed in certain cases where adequate district representation had to be given and in cases of employees of co-operative institutions. 45 applicants presented themselves at the Office of the Institute and got their names registered. The number of students on the roll at the end of the course was 33. However, the average daily attendance was 29.

Instructions were given free and accommodation was given, free of cost, to such of the students as had applied for the same. The applicants for scholarships were interviewed by the above-named Sub-committee and twenty scholarships of Rs 5/- each per mensem for two months were granted to poor and deserving candidates.

The following gentlemen were kind enough to serve as Honorary Lecturers:-

Messrs:-
1. M.D.Venkate Urs, B.A., Assistant Registrar of Co-operative Societies, Bangalore Division;

REPORT ON THE WORKING OF THE MYSORE CO-OPERATIVE INSTITUTE, BANGALORE CITY FOR THE YEAR 1936—37.

The Governing Body of the Institute have great pleasure in presenting to the General Body of Members the following report on the working of the Institute for the year ended 30th June 1937 :

Membership :

At the beginning of the year there were on the rolls of the Institute 158 members of whom 117 were Associate Members and 41 were Affiliated Societies. During the year 69 individuals and 20 societies were admitted to membership. 7 Associate Members and 3 Affiliated Societies ceased to be members for various reasons. Thus at the end of the year there were 237 members on the rolls of whom 179 were Associate Members and 58 were Affiliated Members.

Governing Body Meetings :

The Governing Body met during the year eight times and the Working Committee five times. Average attendance in the meetings of the Governing Body was 12.25.

Mysore Co-operative Journal :

The Mysore Co-operative Journal was continued to be published. There were at the end of the year 121 subscribers and the Journal was supplied free of cost to 61 Affiliated Societies as per Bye-Law No. 6 (d).

The Mysore Co-operators' Home :

During the year under report the Mysore Co-operators' Home was fitted up with electric lights and sanitary fittings. The building was opened by Amin-ul-Mulk Sir Mirza M. Ismail Kt., C.I.E., O.B.E., Dewan of Mysore, on 22nd October 1936 and the Mysore Provincial Co-operative Conference was held for the first time in its own building.

A meeting of the Working Committee of the Institute and the Co-operators of Mysore City was held at Mysore at which it was decided that the Home building should be entrusted to an Agency at Mysore and that it should be utilised for co-operative purposes only. Accordingly, a set of rules were drafted and passed by the Governing Body and the Mysore Co-operative Federal Union Ltd., Mysore, accepted those conditions and the management of the building was temporarily entrusted to the Federal Union.

No extensions to the building could be taken up during the year owing to paucity of funds. It is earnestly requested that the co-operative societies will individually contribute liberally for this purpose during the current year so that further building work may be taken on hand and necessary additions made with a view to meet at least the immediate requirements of Co-operators generally while going to Mysore for Co-operative Conference and other purposes.

Appointment of Honorary District Propaganda Officers ;

Six Honorary District Propaganda Officers were appointed during the year for carrying on co-operative propaganda and other incidental works connected with the progress of the movement in their respective districts. The Registrar of Co-operative Societies was pleased to issue orders to the Assistant Registrars and Inspectors of Co-operative Societies in their respective jurisdictions to afford facilities to the Propaganda Officers for carrying on propaganda work and other duties that may be assigned to them by the Institute. The following are the lady and gentlemen who have kindly consented to be the Propaganda Officers :

1 Sri M Nagu Bai (for propaganda work among women in Mysore District).
2 Mr. Y. Srinivasaiya, B.A., LL B., (Mysore district).
3 „ S. Abdul Azeez, „
4 „ T. Ramachar, B A., L.L.B., (Kolar District).
5 „ R. K. Jayathirthachar, B A., LL.B., (Shimoga dist) &
6 „ T. Subbramanyam, B.A., LL. B., (Tumkur District).

Mysore Provincial Co-operative Conference ;

The XXIII Mysore Provincial Co-operative Conference was held on 22nd and 23rd October 1936 in the Mysore Co-operators' Home under the Presidency of Rajamanthrapravina Mr. N. Madhava Rau, B A., B L. Second Member of Council As many as 52 propositions bearing on various aspects of Co-operation were tabled for discussion. 19 Resolutions were passed and a few propositions were referred to the Registrar of Co-operative Societies, the Mysore Provincial Co-operative Apex Bank, Ltd., the Mysore Central Co-operative Land Mortgage Bank Ltd., and the Institute for consideration and disposal. They were all duly referred to Government and other concerned authorities for necessary action. The proceedings of the Conference and a brief report of action taken on the Resolutions have been separately printed. The accounts relating to the Conference have also been separately published.

Representation of Co-operative Special Interest on the Mysore Representative Assembly:

Mr. A. N. Rama Rao, B.A., B L, was returned unopposed to represent the Special Interest of Co-operation on the Mysore Representative Assembly on behalf of the Institute at the recent election.

International Co-operators' Day:

The International Co-operators' Day was celebrated on the first Saturday in the month of November 1936. i. e., 7th November 1936 Mr M. G. Mehkri B.A., LL B., the then Registrar, presided over the occasion. Rajasabhabhushana Diwan Bahadur Mr. K. R. Srinivasa Iyengar M.A., President of the Mysore Central Co-operative Land Mortgage Bank Ltd., Mr. B. R. Krishnamachar B.A., B.L, President of the Basavangudi Co-operative Society Ltd., Mr. S. Venkatakrishnaiya, B A, B.L., President of the Institute were among those who took part in the meeting. A circular was issued to the co-operative societies in the State to suitably celebrate the Day. Reports received were reviewed in the Mysore Co-operative Journal.

All India Co-operative Conference:

At the instance of the All India Co-operative Associations' Standing Committees, the Fourth All India Co-operative Conference was held in Bangalore on 2nd, 3rd and 4th July 1937. A Reception Committee was formed for the purpose of arranging for the Conference under Rajasabhabhushana Diwan Bahadur Dr. Sir K. P. Puttanna Chetty Kt., C. I. E., LL. D., Retd. Member of Council, as its Chairman. Among the members who formed it were Messrs Rajasabhabhushana Diwan Bahadur K. R. Srinivasa Iyengar M A., Rajakaryapravina P G. D' Souza, B A ;B.L., S. Venkatakrishnaiya B.A., B.L, and other prominent Co-operators of the State. The Reception Committee met on three occasions and settled the programme of the procedure for the Conference. A Working Committee was also formed for the purpose of giving effect to the decisions arrived at by the Reception Committee. The following Sub-Committies were also formed:—1. The Conference Arrangements Sub-Committee. 2. The Finance Sub-Committee. 3. The Boarding, Lodging and Volunteer Service Sub Committee, and 4. The Entertainment Sub-Committee.

A subscription list was opened with a view to collecting the necessary funds for expenditure. In response to the Appeal made for funds several of the societies both urban and rural liberally contributed varying sums of money. The total collections amounted to Rs. 2,020/-. Government was graciously pleased to sanction the sum of Rs. 1,000/- in furtherance of the objects of the Conference out of which Rs. 500/-was spent, the balance of Rs 500/-being remitted back to Government as, it was found that sufficient sum of money had been collected from other sources.

Delegates and Visitors from various parts of India attended the Conference. Twenty-five delegates were given free lodging and boarding. The Conferences were held under the distinguished Presidencies of the Hon'ble Mr. V. Ramadas Pantulu, B A., B.L., President of the All India Co-operative Associations and Jamshed N. R. Mehta, President of the Sindh Provincial Co-operative Bank Ltd, At the end of the Conference some of the delegates were afforded necessary facilities for visiting places of interest in the State. Among them were Mysore, Shivasamudram, Brindavan at Krishnarajsagar, and Seringapatam. It is gratifying to note that the Visitors were much pleased with the arrangements made by the Reception Committee.

A meeting of the Reception Committee was held on 6th, September 1937 at which the audited statement of accounts was adopted. In adopting the statement of accounts, the Committee Resolved that the balance of amount Rs 866/9/9 at credit of the Conference account should be kept in Fixed Deposit with the Mysore Provincial Co-operative Apex Bank Ltd. and the interest annually accruing on it be expended on co-operative purposes generally in consultation with the Registrar.

Co-operative Training Class :

Co-operative Training Classes were held in consultation with the Registrar of Co-operative Societies. They were mainly intended for the benefit of office-bearers of co-operative societies and members of co-operative societies and the general public. The course lasted for two months from 4th January 1937. Applications for admission were received from 103 candidates. Of these only 79 including two women candidates joined the Class. On an average 54 students attended the classes regularly. 17 scholarships of Rs 7/8/-per mensem were granted to poor and deserving candidates. Free lodging was also provided for those who had applied for the same. Lectures were delivered by departmental officers and non-official gentlemen of Bangalore on various subjects. A written examiantion consisting of four papers was held at the end of the course at which 53 students sat. 22 students were declared to have passed in the examination Their names were recommended to the Registrar for being in turn recommended to the co-operative societies in the State to give them preference in making appointments. A detailed report on the subject was published in the Mysore Co-operative Journal.

Audit & Finance :

Mr. M. Subba Rau, B.A , LL.B., G D.A.,R.A , audited the accounts of the Institute for the year under report. The internal audit was conducted by Mr G C L. Narnayya, a member on the Governing Body representing the Malleswaram Co-operative Bank Ltd. The Government was pleased to give as usual a subvention of Rs. 500/-, and a grant of Rs. 200/- to the co-operative training class, and also Rs. 1,000/- for making arrangements to the All India Co-operative Conference. The Institute collected Rs. 310/- towards memership subscription, Rs. 409/8/- towards Journal subscription, Rs 918/- towards the expenses of the XXIII Mysore Provincial Co-operative Conference, Rs. 1,230/- (during the year) towards the expenses of the All India Co-operative Conference, and Rs. 2,683/6/3 towards the Mysore Co-operators' Home Fund. The loan of Rs. 600/- that had been taken by the Institute at its initial stages was yet unpaid at the end of the year.

The Governing Body recommend that a sum of Rs. 51/- be written off as irrecoverable shown as Advance outstanding.

General:

Representations were submitted by the Institute to the Government on the recommendations of the Co-operative Enquiry Committee of 1936.

Thanks of the Governing Body are due to Mr. M. G. Mehkri, B.A.,LL B., the former Registrar and to Mr. M. Abdul Hukh, B.A., Present Registrar of Co-operative Societies, for having readily co-operated in the work of the Institute and also for the other assistance given by them in connection with its work.

The Governing Body also desire to place on record their thanks to Mr. G.C.L. Naranayya for having conducted the internal audit of the accounts of the Institute during the year.

Mr. M. A. Gopalaswamy Iyengar, who had been the Secretary of the Institute during the past four years and rendered valuable services in that capacity resigned the Secretaryship with effect from 6th September 1937. Mr. A. N. Rama Rao who has been the Joint Secretary was requested to take over his duties.

By Order,
A. N. RAMA RAO.
